A STORY OF STARR.

HOW HE WON A FAIR AND YOUNG BRIDE.

A GREENE COUNTY GIRL.

She Was a Part of the Booty That Starr Captured On One of His Many Raids.

There is a pretty little story afloat giving the inside history of how Henry Starr, the notorious highwayman and bank robber, won the love of a Southwest Missouri girl, who afterwards became his wife.

Mary Jones, now Mrs. Starr, was, in her early teens, a Greene county school girl, residing in the southwest part of that county. Later on, with her parents, she removed to Joplin. The story of Mary Jones and her bandit lover, as told by the Springfield Democrat, is as follows:

One night in August, 1892, a train on the Valley line was held up at Prior Creek, I. T. A man crawled over the tender and made the engineer bring his train to a standstill. Immediately masked men on horseback rode up and commenced a heavy fusillade. Two of the robbers went into the express car, and others went into the coaches. Starr remained on the platform of the first coach, while his men were securing the available cash. While he was standing there a young girl wild with terror jumped off the car and ran away into the darkness. The train was delayed but about half an hour by the bandits, and at the end of that time Starr and his merry men were upon their horses and riding furiously away through the woods.

About a quarter of a mile from the railroad track, one of the train robbers who was riding in advance came upon the apparently lifeless body of a girl. She was lying upon her back and her face was white, her mouth set and her hands clenched. The robber, when he saw the apparition, put spurs to his horse and made him jump over the body. Several others followed suit, but when Starr came to the spot he dismounted and picked the girl up in his arms to see whether she was really dead or not. She opened her eyes and gazed in a half dazed way at the faces of the rough men around her. She asked where her father was and then Starr recognized in her the little girl whom he had seen run away from the train. The bandits had but little time to lose, and the leader ordered one of the men to carry the girl along on his saddle and ride one of the extra horses. The girl was too frightened to make any remonstrance and she acted like one in a trance.

The outlaws halted the next day about 10 o'clock in a secluded canyon, where they pitched camp. The little captive by this time began to realize that she was not in a dream, and Starr bluntly told her that she was in the camp of outlaws. The first day the leader paid little attention to the girl. He put her under the care of an Indian woman and gave orders to the men to leave her alone. The child was rather pretty, apparently 16 or 17 years old, with dark hair and dreamy brown eyes. Every time Starr appeared she pleaded with him to take her back to her people. She said that her name was Mary Jones, and that her father lived in Joplin, Mo. The girl's supplications were not at first listened to, but on the third day reports came to the camp that the marshals were on the trail of the robbers and they were compelled to leave camp.

Starr had by this time taken a fancy to the stolen Mary, and on the ride next day she rode by his side. The country through which the bandits traveled was a rough one, and Mary, not used to long rides, was thoroughly tired out at the end of each day's journey. Starr noticed that she complained less and even had grown to like him, but he well knew that she could not stand the rough treatment she was receiving, and when he was notified that the marshal was closing in on his band, he resolved to send Mary away, back to her home.

Perhaps not in a joke, but not altogether in earnest, before parting with the captive he told her that he would soon go to Joplin and marry her. Mary seriously accepted the offer and merrily told him that she would wait for him. In the few days she had really fallen in love with the bold and fearless Henry. Months rolled by; Mary safely reached her home and there remained, waiting for the appearance of her outlaw lover, and finally she was rewarded. In the third week Starr went to Joplin to claim his bride. He had but little difficulty in finding her, and after gaining the consent of her parents, he was married to her under the name of Frank Jackson. No one in Joplin knew him, and he passed himself off as a New Mexican rancher. From Joplin the young couple went to Las Vegas, N. M., and from there to Colorado Springs, where he was captured on July 2.

When Starr was transferred to Denver his bride remained a day at the Springs and then went back to her home in Joplin, it is believed.

QUITE BADLY HURT.

Miss Lida Burress Injured by Jumping from a Car.

Miss Lida Burress, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Burress, was quite badly hurt on Grand avenue, near Sixteenth street, shortly after 9 o'clock last night.

In company with a couple of lady friends she was riding in an electric car when the fuse burned out, causing quite a flash, and frightening the ladies so badly that they jumped from the car while it was in motion.

Miss Burress fell when she jumped, and was rendered unconscious by the fall. She was carried home by Col. John D. Crawford, Rudolph Dean and John Hyatt, but remained unconscious nearly an hour.

Drs. Trader and Seales were summoned, and an examination revealed that no bones were broken, but the young lady sustained a severe shock, and this morning she was not feeling even as well as she did last night after having regained consciousness.

SHE SKIPPED OUT.

The Wife of a Young Farmer Elopes With Amos Griffith.

Bronaugh, a small hamlet in Vernon county, is agog over the elopement of a married man there with a neighbor's wife.

The parties are Amos Griffith, aged about 35 years, and Mrs. Owen Titus, aged about 25. Mrs. Titus also took with her a little son some 3 years of age.

Some two weeks ago Mrs. Titus and her child went to Independence, Kas. Mrs. Carpenter, her mother, went there to bring her home, but found upon her arrival that Mrs. Titus, accompanied by her son, had left the day previous—one day during the latter part of the week with Amos Griffith.

The parties, it appears, were tracked to Fort Scott, but there they disappeared. The woman's husband is a quiet, steady young farmer. Griffith had been very attentive to Mrs. Titus, which had been noticed by the people of the neighborhood, though the denouement was not generally expected.

WERE NOT DROWNED.

The Lads Referred to Yesterday Ran Away From Home.

The DEMOCRAT of last evening stated that it was feared that two children of a man named Martin had met a watery grave in Flat creek, as they left home Monday and failed to return.

Last night the mystery was cleared away. Instead of Martin, the father of the boys is named Martin Hohlet, and he is a colored man. One of the boys was aged 10 years, and the other not quite 9.

Flat creek was dragged yesterday in the hope of recovering the bodies, but late in the afternoon it was learned that the missing lads had come to Sedalia.

The father of the boys was in the city last night searching for them, but returned home without having located them.

gives promise of attracting a large crowd, especially as it is to be accompanied by a parachute jump. Judge Metts promises to have abundant transportation facilities, and all who care to visit the park will witness a thrilling scene executed by a daring young woman.

Fell Into a Well.

News reached Nevada last evening of the finding of the body of Arion Tallont in a well on the A. P. Howard farm, about eleven miles west of Nevada. He fell in the well on Friday. Tallont was about 17 years old. His mother lives in Nevada, and the young man had gone out in search of work. He is said to have been subject to fits.

Inspected the Line.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas officials yesterday inspected the Missouri, Kansas and Eastern line from Franklin to St. Charles. The new line will be operated for local business at once, but through traffic will not pass over it until the Burlington's Missouri river bridge is finished, sixteen miles north of St. Louis.

THE DEMOCRAT,
Sedalia, Mo.

OFFICE: 307 Ohio St. Telephone 232.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

THE DEMOCRATIC IDEA.

The country is anxiously awaiting the assembling of congress, for upon the correct solution of the financial problem depends to a great extent the prosperity of the masses of the people.

Fortunately we are not in the dark as to the opinions of the leaders in the house and senate.

The Vest free coinage bill was debated at length by the last congress, and every argument made in its favor then applies with equal force now.

So that the country will look to the eloquent orators who advocated free coinage under Harrison to preach the same doctrine in spite of Mr. Cleveland's opposition.

Principles do not change with the moon or with the tide. What was wrong and vicious in principle two years ago, is equally wrong in principle now.

Not only does the record of many of the senators and congressmen set at rest all question as to their position on the question now, but the secretary of the treasury has made eloquent and convincing arguments in favor of free coinage of silver when he was serving as a member of congress.

In 1878 when silver coinage was under discussion on the floor of the house, Mr. Carlisle made the following masterly argument in its favor:

"I know that the world's stock of precious metals is none too large, and I see no reason to apprehend that it will ever become so. Mankind will be fortunate, indeed, if the annual production of gold and silver coin shall keep pace with the annual increase of population, commerce and industry. According to my views of the subject, the conspiracy which seems to have been formed here and in Europe to destroy by legislation and otherwise from three-sevenths to one-half of the metallic money of the world is the most gigantic crime of this or any other age. The consummation of such a scheme would ultimately entail more misery upon the human race than all the wars, pestilence and famine that ever occurred in the history of the world. The absolute and instantaneous destruction of half the entire movable property of the world, including houses, ships, railroads and all other appliances for carrying on commerce, while it would be felt more sensibly at the moment, would not produce anything like the prolonged distress and disorganization of society that must inevitably result from the permanent annihilation of one-half of the metallic money in the world."

This should set at rest all doubt as to Secretary Carlisle's position. Knowing the "conspiracy," its purposes and the consequences that will follow its success, not all the power of Wall street can induce Mr. Carlisle to lend it a helping hand.

The secretary is a democrat, and he very eloquently sets forth the democratic idea on the coinage question.

Having digested the matter so thoroughly, he will now lend his influence to break down the conspiracy which he denounced in such ringing terms.

In speaking of the fact that a cousin of ex-President Harrison has been retained as custodian of a federal building at Leavenworth the Republic says: "It is such things as this which make some democrats wonder why Mr. Harrison himself was not retained as custodian of a federal building at Washington."

The formation of one great central labor council is receiving the attention of General Master Workman Powderly. In a recent interview he said: "I believe that the labor union of the present and the past has seen its day of usefulness.

It can win no great strikes; it can accomplish no great reform. In the future the power of the labor union will be its great strength as a political factor. The man who, with the lessons of the past to guide him, says that labor unionism without politics can be a success is a fool. Such institutions as the American Federation of Labor and the Knights of Labor must be wiped out."

SEDALIA is a remarkably peaceful and orderly city. Even when large crowds are assembled on our streets the tough is generally conspicuous by his absence. Go to the parks when you will and the most perfect decorum is observed. This is highly creditable to the city and also shows the efficiency of our police.

STREET paving has been given a black eye in Sedalia for this season, at least, by reason of somebody's incompetency. What a few weeks ago promised to be a busy season in street improvements is proving to be the dulllest for several years past.

SEDALIA will no doubt furnish St. Paul with the ablest educator the city has ever had in the person of Prof. Smith; and if Chicago or New York desire a principal, a professor or a superintendent, Sedalia can furnish the gentleman on short notice also.

When the Kansas City Times convinces its readers that black is white it will have served an apprenticeship that will be valuable to it in its more difficult task of making goldbugs out of the free silver coinage democrats of Missouri.

"M. E.," who has a communication in this morning's Gazette, isn't "in it with the editor of the Enterprise-Sentinel when it comes to "skinning a cyclist."

THE Tidewater railway is no longer honored by even being referred to as the Jerkwater, so disastrous has the "financial flurry" proven.

A CITY official who receives a salary of $100 a month or more ought to understand his business thoroughly, but such isn't always the case.

"Royal Ruby" Port Wine.

If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this Old Port Wine, the very blood of the grape. It creates strength; improves the appetite, nature's own remedy, much preferable to drugs; guaranteed absolutely pure and over five years of age. Young wine ordinarily sold is not fit for use. Insist on having this standard brand, it costs no more. $1 in quart bottles, pints 60 cts. Royal Wine Co. For sale by A. S. McGowan.

"Evangelist" Vernon Arrested.

Leigh Vernon, the "evangelist," who eloped with Mrs. Pearson, of Joplin, Mo., has come to grief. The guilty pair were detected at Duluth, Minn., by a Dr. Webster, who was until recently a resident of Joplin. The police were notified, and although Vernon and his companion endeavored to escape, they were overhauled in a cheap boarding house in West Duluth. The sheriff from Joplin and the father of Mrs. Pearson have gone after the couple. Indignation runs high at Joplin, and the "evangelist" will get his just deserts.

THE RAILROADS.

Walter Shirk, commercial agent for the "Katy," is in Clinton today.

Traveling Auditor Fisher, of the Missouri Pacific, was in the city last evening.

Civil Engineer Rohwer was a passenger on the incoming Lexington branch train last night.

Remarkable to a degree is the record made by McFarland's German System Tonic, the great vitalizer.

Simon Cronin, the efficient traveling auditor for the Missouri Pacific, was in town this morning, at Kaiser's.

Freight engine 949 was turned out of the Missouri Pacific shops today, after having been thoroughly overhauled.

Col. E. W. McElhancy, live stock agent for the Missouri Pacific, left today for a trip to Boonville and Marshall.

Jim Robb, baggageman on the "Katy," who has been laying off for a few days, goes south on his regular run on No. 1 to-night.

The Missouri Pacific shopmen breathe easier since they have learned that Master Mechanic Weller does not propose to reduce the force.

Fourteen linemen were laid off in the telegraph department of the Missouri Pacific yesterday, with a view to still further reducing expenses.

The M., K. & T. fast train is a success and has come to stay. Another sleeper has been added to the train, so great is the demand for accommodations.

Archie Wilson, son of Chief Engineer Wilson, of the M., K. & T., arrived in Parsons from New York Sunday morning and has taken a position in his father's office.

Conductor J. M. Truitt, of the M., K. & T., who has been sojourning at Hot Springs for several months, has returned to Parsons, looking much the better for the trip.

Theo. Lay, of M., K. & T. has resumed his work, and notwithstanding loss of two fingers, is all smiles on account of Will Woods issuing him a check in full of his ten weeks indemnity claim.

For the past two or three days the M., K. & T. has enjoyed an unprecedented run of freight traffic. Every engine in the service of the company has been in use, some of the engines going over the Cherokee division on Sunday two or three times. The pay roll of July will be a large one.

An Addition to the Flyer.

A part of the mission of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas officials who were in Texas recently was to arrange for a through Wagner service. They visited the Houston and Texas Central officials and it was agreed upon that the Wagner car, which has been running from Galveston to St. Louis over the Houston and Texas Central to Denison, shall instead be run from Galveston to Chicago. The Galveston Wagner will be hitched on to the Columbian Flyer at Denison. This change will be made as soon as the preliminaries can be arranged, which will probably take several days.

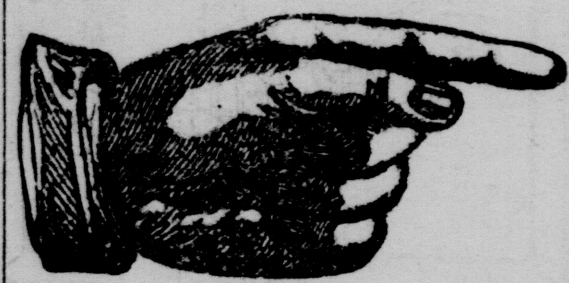

Railway Accidents.

The advance sheets of the last report of the interstate commerce commission, as far as they have been able to obtain the facts, show that the number of men employed on railroads in the United States during the year covered by the report was 784,285, being an increase of 34,984 over the previous year. Of these employees there were killed during the year ending June 30, 1891, 2660, and the number injured was 26,149. The number of passengers killed was 293, and the number injured was 2972, and those classed as "other persons" bring the total number killed up to 7029, and the total number injured to 33,881, making a grand total of killed and injured 40,910.

President Clark Much Better.

Colonel T. M. Orr, of the Union Pacific, at Omaha, has received a letter which brought gratifying news to all the heads of departments and the rank and file of the service. The letter stated that the president, Mr. S. H. H. Clark, was gaining health and appetite among the mountains of Pennsylvania. Mr. Clark is not at Cresson Springs in the Alleghenies, but at a farm house off the line of the Erie road at a point only known to the family and a few intimate friends. All letters of a business character are kept from him, and he is, in a sense, isolated from the world, with the hope that the mountain air of the Keystone state will restore him to health. So hopeful was the letter received that Mr. Clark may return to Omaha about July 20, his original intention to return July 10 having been abandoned because of the great improvement noticeable.

DALTON'S ASPIRATION.

James O'Meara Says He Still Wants to be Governor.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 12.—During a recent visit to this city Lieutenant Governor John B. O'Meara stated, on several occasions and to various gentlemen, that Colonel Dick Dalton would positively be a candidate for the democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1896.

The lieutenant governor even went further than this, and stated openly and above board that he would be for Colonel Dalton in that race. The suggestion was made that it was generally regarded over the state and in the ranks of the democratic workers that appointment to an important federal office, such as Colonel Dalton holds, eliminated the appointee from state politics.

Lieutenant Governor O'Meara contended, however, that such was not the case, especially as applied to Colonel Dalton, and reiterated his statement that Colonel Dalton would be in the gubernatorial race. "He has an ambition," said O'Meara, "to be governor of Missouri, and the fire of that ambition has not been quenched under the gloom of defeat. He is as strong to-day, if not stronger, with the masses of people throughout the state than he was before the democratic convention last summer when he was defeated for the nomination by Governor Stone. He has a wonderful hold on the people of Missouri, and his manly course after the convention, when he went into the campaign and worked night and day for the ticket, added to his strength and popularity. Dalton is not a rich man, but I believe he would cheerfully give up a second term as surveyor of St. Louis to be governor of Missouri one term at a smaller salary."

The Industrial Council.

At a regular meeting of the Industrial Council, last night, nominations were made for recording-financial secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer, sergeant-at-arms and three trustees, which officers will be elected at the next meeting of the council, two weeks hence.

The council adopted a petition to congress against the repeal of the Sherman act until the enactment of a law fully remonetizing silver. A second petition was adopted, demanding of congress the immediate establishment of postal savings banks in connection with the postoffices. The government shall be required to pay 3 per cent per annum on the deposits, and may loan the funds so deposited at not more than 3½ per cent per annum.

The council entered a protest against the repeal of the Geary exclusion act, and after disposing of some minor business adjournment was had.

AN ORDINANCE.

AN ORDINANCE providing for the construction of a sewer in East Sedalia, at the joint expense and for the joint use of the city and the Missouri Pacific Railway company.

Be it ordained by the council of the city of Sedalia, Missouri, as follows, to-wit:

SECTION 1. That there be made and constructed a tile or pipe sewer in East Sedalia, of the dimensions, and located as follows: A double strength vitrified tile or pipe sewer, with an inside diameter of fifteen inches, commencing four hundred and eighty-three feet, more or less, east of the center line of Center street and on the north line of Third street, (the point meant being the outlet of the sewer running southwardly from the shops of the Missouri Pacific Railway company,) thence west along the center line of Third street to a point twenty-five feet east of the center line of said Center street, thence southwesterly on a curve having a radius of twenty-five feet to the center line of said Center street, thence south along the center line of said Center street with a tile or pipe sewer having an inside diameter of eighteen inches, to a point nine hundred and thirty-three feet south of the south line of Third street, this also to be double strength and vitrified, thence south with a double strength vitrified tile or pipe sewer, having an inside diameter of twenty-four inches, two thousand feet, more or less, to a point twenty-five feet north of the center line of Tenth street, thence southeasterly on a curve having a radius of twenty-five feet to the center line of said Tenth street, thence east along the center line of said Tenth street 300 feet, more or less, to the first ravine or natural course of drainage, said ravine runs in a southeasterly direction at its intersection with said Tenth street.

The last two named sections of said sewer above mentioned shall be of double strength vitrified tile having an inside diameter of twenty-four inches.

Sec. 2. It is hereby agreed and stood by and between the city and Missouri Pacific Railway company, that the city shall do all necessary excavating, and the placing of the tile out of said sewer is constructed, and all other work necessary for the construction and completion of said sewer. The city shall take up all the tiling now in said Center street and replace and use so much thereof as will conform to the specifications of this ordinance. The city shall also take up such other tiling as may be found in the street, and which constituted a part of the sewer formerly used by the said Missouri Pacific Railway company, if it be found necessary to provide the full amount of any of the kinds or dimensions of pipes or tiling provided for in this ordinance; but nothing herein shall be so construed as to require the city to take up any of the tiling of said sewer so formerly used that is now within the private property of any person or persons, but the city shall only be required to take up such as is in the public streets as aforesaid.

The said Missouri Pacific Railway company shall furnish, delivered on the line of the sewer, all tiling, of the proper dimensions necessary to complete said sewer over and above that which is to be taken up as hereinbefore provided. The said Missouri Pacific Railway company shall furnish such number of joints with Y branches, and of such dimensions as may be required by the city engineer, not to exceed thirty in all. The said company shall also furnish one increaser joint from fifteen to eighteen inches and one increaser from eighteen to twenty-four inches.

The city engineer shall immediately upon the passage and approval of this ordinance endorse on the back the number of Y joints which the city will require in the construction of said sewer, together with the dimensions thereof.

Sec. 3. In the construction of said sewer the city shall connect the same with the sewer of the Missouri Pacific shops, above mentioned, and at the point of commencement of the sewer herein provided for, and shall construct the same in the proper manner throughout. The city shall hereafter maintain said sewer at its own expense, and shall repair and clean the same whenever it may become necessary. The said Missouri Pacific Railway Company shall have the right to use said sewer for all time in the future for the purpose only of carrying away waste water from the shops, round houses, offices and other buildings of said company now existing or which may hereafter be constructed or erected.

The said Missouri Pacific Railway Company is expressly prohibited from allowing waste, scrap iron, cinders, or other substances likely to obstruct the flow of water through said sewer. If at any time said sewer should become blocked, or stopped, the city shall clean the same but if in so doing it shall be discovered that said sewer was blocked or stopped or obstructed on account of substances permitted to enter the same by the said Missouri Pacific Railway Company, through its negligence or carelessness in failing to observe the requirements of this ordinance, the expense of such cleaning shall be paid by said company, and on their refusal to pay the same suit may be instituted against said company for any such sum so expended.

Sec. 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be binding on the city and the said Missouri Pacific Railway Company, from and after its passage and approval, and the written acceptance of its provisions endorsed hereon by the proper officer of said company duly authorized to make contracts.

Attest: ED. HOGUE,
City Clerk.

The Missouri Pacific Railway Company accepts the terms and conditions of the above ordinance.

Dated July 5th, 1893.

ROBBED OF $60.

A Young Man From Clinton With a Tale of Woe.

John Klockney, a young man who has just attained his majority, appeared here this morning with a tale of woe.

He lives at Clinton, and last night he stopped at a hotel there, preparatory to coming to Sedalia this morning.

At the hostelry he made the acquaintance of a man and woman who were also coming to Sedalia to-day. The couple took a great interest in John, and he gave the woman the check for the baggage that he had had checked to Sedalia.

He retired early, and when he awoke this morning he made the discovery that $60 he had when he closed his eyes in slumber was missing. He also discovered that his newly-found friends had taken passage on the "Katy" flyer, bringing his baggage with them and leaving him to follow on a later train.

On arrival here the young man ascertained that the guilty couple had gone west, presumably to Kansas City, and he left for that point this afternoon.

FARMERS COMING.

The State Convention to Be Held July 19-20.

City Collector V. P. Hart is in receipt of a letter from State Railroad Commissioner Hickman, asking that Sedalia appoint a committee on reception to receive the farmers who will be here on July 19 and 20, for the purpose of holding a state convention or conference.

The outlook is flattering for a large attendance, Mr. Hickman writes, and he is anxious that the Prairie Queen shall extend a cordial welcome to the visitors.

Mr. Hart would like to have some of the prominent business men of the city co-operate with him in naming the reception committee, and will be pleased to receive suggestions on the subject from those interested.

HALT!

Stand and Deliver!

This has been the heartless and selfish command of the local butchers from time immemorial, without regard to the price of cattle. Spring, summer, autumn and winter the prices have been the same. Everything fluctuates but the cost of the most necessary article of food, viz.: meat. This is higher in winter but no lower in summer, when stock can be bought for a song.

I propose to inject a little change into this antiquated method of doing business by regulating the price of meat according to the cost of stock.

Note these figures. Chuck steak, 6c per lb.; formerly sold for 10c. Round steak, 7c; former price, 10-12 1/2c. Roasts, from 4c to 7c; former price, 10c, 12 1/2c. Boiling meat, 3c per lb.; former price, 6-7c. Ham steak, 9c; former price, 12 1/2c, 15c. This is for cash only. Money is scarce and hard to get. I am willing to divide with my patrons. You can readily see that if you buy your meat of me you can save money enough to attend the World's fair.

I mean by cash that you must pay for your meat when you get it. There is no to-morrow for me. We live only for the present. The past is gone and the future will care for itself.

Yours, Financially,

LOUIS BAHNER.

P. S.—These prices will go into effect to-morrow (Thursday) and will continue for two weeks. Further announcements later.

Tel. 120. LOUIS BAHNER.

Notice.

Nice residence, blacksmith shop and tools complete, clear, well situated and doing a good business. Will exchange for small farm.

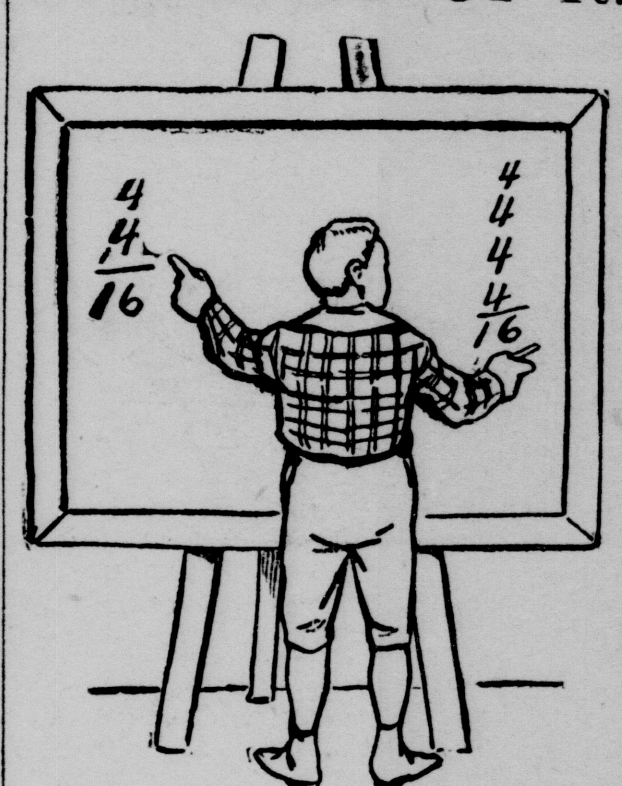

New five room cottage, southwest corner Fourteenth and Kentucky. Can be bought—worth the money—on easy terms. Might take some trade.

Good 120 acre farm, five miles of Sedalia, fairly improved, $35 per acre, to exchange for a residence in Sedalia.

We have resident property and lots of all classes in all parts of the city and some nice suburban homes and acre property for sale. Also a nice list of farms in sizes to suit.

A large list of property here and elsewhere constantly on hand for exchange. Write or call on MORRIS & WEST, 214 Ohio street.

The Proof Of It.

Tradesmen are given to flamboyant statements in their advertising, it must be admitted, but not one need be deceived thereby. We state only facts when we say that the opportunities we have to offer are not excelled anywhere. Let us prove it to you.
